

Montana powerhouse comes to BHS tonight.

If you have been around wrestling long enough in North Dakota you understand the teams that have traditionally been on top in the region, the surrounding states etc. Tonight, one of those traditionally tough teams comes to the Karlgaard Main Arena at Bismarck High. Sidney is in a rebuilding year, and when you look at the age of their team even brighter days are right around the corner. The Eagles are only Ranked 7th in Montana (A) but will come a blazing and giving their best shot at the Demons.

It is a special night in Bismarck, as long-time head coach, the legend, Jeff Schumacher has his last home dual. Let's make it special and all show up and support one of North Dakota's best coaches of all time. Jeff has agreed to start up the wrestling program at Bismarck State College for this next season after not having a wrestling program since 1998, more than 25 years since Mystics last National Champion Brock Lesnar last BSC wrestler put on the green and brown.

Sidney is just coming back from the Montana A Duals where they went 7-1 taking 2nd place losing in the finals in an epic match to Laurel Montana.

Tonight's Possible matchups: #7 Sidney Montana Eagles vs #1 Bismarck High Demons

107 #1 Cade Nieuwsma 9	Eli Lonski 8 or #4 @103 Tyson Syth 9
114 #7 Coltan Ireland 11	#1 Gordon Knapp 12 or #4 Tyson Syth 9
121 #3 @107 Kayden Egeberg 7	open
127 #1 Ben DeForest 11	#4 Brenner Mullin 8
133 #3 Hudson Egeberg 10	#5 Aaron Schmitz 8
139 #4 Braden Halverson 10 or HM Carson Lardy 11	#3 Brody Keysor 9
145 #3 Landon McMahan 12	#1 Reece Graves 11
152 #5 Devin Halverson 12	Jason Sorteberg 9
160 #2 Tyrus Jangula 12 or HM Iszac Turner 12	#5 Ty Schepens 9
172 #1 LJ Araujo 12 or HM James Nagel 12	Branden Pederson 11
189 #6 Bridger Owens 12	Shane Goergen 10
215 #3 Ayden Schlafman 12	#6 Thor Fulgham 9
285 #2 Easton Egeberg 11	Caleb Kleinke 12